

JOHN JAY COLLEGE OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Department of Sciences Presents the 6th Annual Forensic Science Symposium

Forensic Evidence in Sexual Assault and Domestic Violence Cases

This seminar will focus on the role of sexual assault nurse examiners in victim examination, evidence collection and expert testimony. The afternoon session presents the use of emerging forensic technologies. The hands-on workshop on Saturday, October 18th will demonstrate the use of Alternative Light Sources (ALS) for enhanced documentation of injuries..

SPEAKERS:

Jenifer Markowitz, ND, RN

Amy Smith, DPN

Melissa Mourges, JD

Katherine Scafide; PhD

Ilyman Almubarak, MS

Hosts: Mechthild Prinz, PhD & Jack Hietpas, PhD

JOIN US

Friday (seminar) and/or Saturday (workshop)

October 17-18th, 2025

Time

09:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Attend In-Person or via Zoom

John Jay College of Criminal Justice

524 West 59th Street NY, NY 10019

Early (pre Oct 1st) Registration:
Seminar only $75.00
Seminar + workshop $125.00

CLE Credits pending for new and experienced attorneys. A practical in-person workshop will be held on Saturday, October 18. Participants can register for the seminar only OR seminar and workshop using QR-code or web site below. Financial Aid options available for those that qualify.

NATIONAL
Domestic Violence
Awareness Month
October

Registration Link:

<https://forms.gle/5gSuRvCea3E4SAjZ9>

JOHN
JAY COLLEGE
OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE